COMPANY'S

COTTON MERRY CARNIVAL

Beginning December 9th, 8 A. M., 1911.

Old King Cole Waa a Merry Old Soul and So Is "Old King Cotton." He will reign supreme at this store beginning Saturday, December 9th for FIFTEEN BIG BARGAIN DAYS and we believe that no time could be more fitting than the present to bid you one and all a hearty welcome to the great feast of Bargain Festivities.

Do you want to cut down the cost of your Living Expense? Do you want to make 9c cotton buy as much merchandise as 14c cotton would ordinarily? TO-DAY THE DOLLAR MUST BUY ITS FULLEST VALUE, and nowhere in South Carolina will your dollar go farther than at this store---this great Cotton Carnival with all its many Bargain Festivities should bring sunshine to hundreds as it's the grandest opportunity that ever came to the people of this county.

STATEMENT BY MOORE & MAULDIN CO.

The announcement of a sale of this kind coming right in the height of the season, is something very much out of the ordinary, but there are always conditions in the mercantile business that make things like this necessary. We anticipated along with the rest of you, a most successful season; we had every reason to believe that the price of cotton would be around 14 cents, and with this in mind we took advantage of many big deals in merchandise at exceptionally low prices. We might say at about buying. What was to be done? This was the question that confronted this store. Something had to be done. The merchandise must not be carried over, and in order to clean up now we will sell the merchandise and try in as far as it is in our power to bring the price of cotton as near 14 cents as we can through the exceptionally low prices that we will make on this stock of merchandise from now until Christmas. The time is opportune for a move of this kind, the people are ready to buy and will buy if the right price is made to them, and we feel sure that the many friends and customers of this store will appreciate this very unusual offering just at this time. Without question, it is going to mean more to you than anything ever attempted in a business way since this store opened for business. Twenty-five years from now people will be talking about this store's great achievement in 1911. We want to take this opportunity to thank you one and all for your generous patronage, and the confidence that you have shown in this store during this long period of successful merchandise, and we ask you one and all to consider this a personal invitation to come to this great sale. COME WHETHER YOU WANT TO BUY OR NOT; THERE IS A HEARTY WELCOME FOR YOU IN EITHER CASE. Respectfully yours,

MOORE & MAULDIN CO.

Your Money's Worth, or Your Money Back.

We want satisfied customers. We never want your money at the expense of your good will. Merchandise that is sold in this store is merchandise that we can honestly recommend to you---no matter what the price you pay. HONEST VALUES---that is the policy upon which we ask for your business. If for any reason whatsoever your purchase does not come up to your expectation and you would rather have your money than the merchandise, do not hesitate to bring it back. Your money will be refunded cheerfully.

A Word to the Farmers.

Present conditions are known to all. The price of cotton is low, and trade is not what it was last year at this time. Our merchandise was bought early in the season---as long as six months ago---as we were forced to buy in advance to get selections we wanted, and we bought heavy, anticipating 14c cotton. Who could foresee 9c cotton? We never dreamed such a thing---but that is the price to-day and that price is affecting business. These conditions must be met and overcome. Our stocks must be sold and to do this we must make the price of our goods to meet the present price of cotton. It is our loss, certainly, but it is your gain. Your position and ours is identical you bought fertilizer, planted and worked for 14c cotton and now you face the present low market. We bought for the heavy trade that 14c cotton would bring, and that trade is not here. We must create this business by making such low prices that you will find that you can afford to sell enough cotton to supply your merchandise wants at the prices we will make. These are the conditions in plain English---you can understand. Now don't you think that it is going to work to your advantage, and that it is to your interest financially to be here when this great sale swings the doors open Saturday, December 9th, at 8 o'clock? We believe that you will come.

NOTICE---On account of the very low prices that we will make, the terms of this sale will be CASH. But if, for any reason, you are not satisfied your money will be cheerfully refunded.

10 Spools of Thread or 10 Yards of Calico for

With every purchase of $7.00 or over we will sell you 10 yards of calico for 10c, or if you prefer, 10 spools of thread for 10c. You must get the thread or calico at the time you make the purchase. Not including groceries.

Special Premiums to the First Ten Customers.

To the first 10 people making a purchase of 50 cents we will give a beautiful present. These are gifts that will be appreciated by you. This is for Saturday, December 7th, the opening day.

The Great Sack Sale.

A big feature for the opening day. One great lot of sacks filled with merchandise to be sold at 25 cents. Each of the sacks contain merchandise worth three to five times the price asked. If you buy a sack and would rather have your money than the goods, it will be cheerfully refunded.

This great Sack Sale will be repeated on Saturday, December 16th.

A LAST WORD.

The end has come all too soon. We wanted very much that prices could have been quoted, but that was impossible, as the printer insisted on having copy for this circular 10 days before this sale opened. The store is loaded to the ceiling with merchandise. It's going to be the biggest sale ever seen in these parts---a record breaker. We are making great preparation---extra salespeople, re-arrangement of stock. Everything possible will be done to handle the crowds that will come, and make their trading easy for them. Plain prices on the YELLOW TICKET. If you can't get a clerk you can wit on yourself. Just as advertised---that is what you always find here. Now, once more---REMEMBER THE OPENING DAY, Saturday, December 9th, fifteen days before Christmas---and we will keep things boiling every day for these 15 days, making them the greatest 15 days of bargains that this community has ever known. We are going to urge you to come. You will thank us once you are here and get your eyes on the merchandise and prices.

Dry Goods, Domestic, Notions, Ladies' Furnishings, Underwear, Men's Furnishings, Shoes, Men's Pants, Groceries, Tinware, Stone and Glassware, Hardware and Implements.

Every department is complete. We never had a better selection and the entire stock is included in this sale. Everything tagged and marked in plain figures. No sale ever held in Pickens can compare with this one. People will remember it for years and will talk about it. You cannot afford to ignore the call of low prices. Its your duty to save every cent you can and this sale is coming to you just at the right time.

Yes, They Will Be Here for Miles Around.

The news is spread broadcast. Just hitch up "Mike"---come, bring the whole family---load in your neighbors and friends---they'll thank you. Come next Thursday sure, and come every other day if you can. We'll do everything in our power to make your visit a pleasant one, and send you home with some dandy remembrances of the sale.

PROMPT ATTENTION AND COURTEOUS SALESMEN.
